English-

In class, we'll be continuing to write our diary entries in the first person as if we are a member of the Iceni tribe. Imagine it's the end of the day and you've just attacked (in revenge) the Roman towns of London and Colchester. What was it like? How are you feeling? Can you recount the events from the day? Aim to include adjectives, conjunctions (and, but, when, that, if, because), question marks, exclamation marks and commas in a list.
