Spellings-See Ash Home Learning page for spellings for this week.

English-

In class, we'll be starting to write our diary entries in the first person as if we are a member of the Iceni tribe. Imagine it's the end of the day and you've just had the Roman army attack your town and hurt your villagers following the death of Boudicca's husband. What was it like? How are you feeling? Can you recount the events from the day? Aim to include adjectives, conjunctions (and, but, when, that, if, because), question marks, exclamation marks and commas in a list.

Maths –We're back onto addition and subtraction again this week.
